

HELLO STUDY GLOBAL

What does the internship provide?

- Hello Study Global provides interns with a great platform and an opportunity to understand how things work in a professional setting.
- It would improve their communication skills, interpersonal skills and would ultimately facilitate overall personality development.
- It will help them understand the finer nuances of how business is done on the internet.
- It will help interns to build a network which stays with them forever.
- Get a chance to build leadership qualities.
- We shall provide a Letter of recommendation(LOR) to candidates, working efficiently throughout the duration of the internship.
- We will provide candidates with an experience certificate.
- This is a good opportunity to earn as well. We offer a performance-based stipend and weekly cash awards.
- We may retain candidates who work exceptionally well and they will be given a fixed stipend.

Skills required

- Basic database management skills using MS Excel, Google Sheets etc.
- Good communication skills
- Basic marketing and collaborative skills
- Research and content writing skills
- Great reach and interactive nature
- Leadership skills

Responsibilities and prerequisites

- Contacting Indian Universities for potential webinars related to study abroad
- Researching about the admission process for various foreign universities
- Gathering and analyzing data
- Writing answers to relevant questions on Quora and related platforms
- Promotions on social media
- Researching content related to study abroad

Internship Category: Campus Research intern

Work type: Virtual/Work from home

Stipend: Performance-based

Internship duration: 2 months + 15 days of a probationary period

Shortlisted interns will go through a video call round via Google Meet for final selection.